The Company holds all capital that is surplus to its immediate operational needs in either Canadian dollars, US dollars or Swiss francs in various bank accounts. There were no changes to the Company's approach to capital management during the period. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND DIGITAL ASSETS RISK MANAGEMENT

As at June 30, 2026, the Company's financial instruments consist of cash, convertible notes receivable, investment, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and convertible debentures.

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in the valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The carrying value of cash and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their respective fair values because of their short-term nature. The Company's investment in private company and convertible notes receivable are classified as FVTPL and are recorded at fair value using unobservable inputs and are therefore classified as level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

SPIRIT BLOCKCHAIN CAPITAL INC.Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty fails to meet an obligation under contract. The Company's credit risk results from the following financial assets:

	June 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
	$	$
Cash	307,612	50,391
Investment	35,526	34,265
Convertible notes receivable	88,783	82,236
Total credit risk associated with financial assets	431,921	166,892

The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with cash is minimal as the cash balances are held with major Canadian financial institutions and in trusts with a reputable law firm. The Company's credit risk primarily relates to convertible notes receivable. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying value of such financial asset.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they come due. The Company is exposed to liquidity risk through accounts payable and accrued liabilities, convertible debentures and subscription deposits. The Company controls liquidity risk by ensuring that it has sufficient cash resources to pay for its financial obligations. As the Company's operations do not generate cash, financial liabilities are discharged using funding through the issuance of common shares or debt as required.

As at June 30, 2026, the Company's cash balance of $307,612 (December 31, 2025 - $50,391) will not be sufficient to meet its current obligations related to accounts payable and accrued liabilities balance of $1,829,412 (December 31, 2025 - $2,419,221) and current portion of convertible notes of $81,735 (December 31, 2025 - $nil). To date, the Company has generated net losses and net cash outflows from operations and has relied on equity and debt financing to fund its operations and will need to continue to secure additional funding for operations. Although the Company has been successful in the past in obtaining financing, there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices will affect the Company's earnings or the value of its financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control exposures within acceptable limits, while maximizing returns.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk as at June 30, 2026.

Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market prices, other than those arising from interest rate risk or foreign currency risk. The Company is exposed to price risk through its holding of digital assets and SAFE investment. As at June 30, 2026, the Company did not hold any digital assets as it no longer retained control over such assets following the loss of access to the related private keys. Accordingly, the Company had no exposure to price risk associated with digital assets.

The Company's SAFE investment is exposed to equity price risk, as its fair value is directly influenced by changes in the issuer's valuation and the expected price of the equity to be received upon conversion. As the SAFE is measured at FVTPL, fluctuations in the issuer's estimated enterprise value result in corresponding changes in the carrying amount of the instrument. During the prior year, a loss on change in fair value of the SAFE investment of $34,265 was recognized. The Company assessed the price risk relating to the SAFE investment as high.

SPIRIT BLOCKCHAIN CAPITAL INC.Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2026 and 2025

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair values of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because they are denominated in currencies that differ from the respective functional currency. The Company is exposed to foreign currency risk, as certain monetary financial instruments are denominated in currencies other than the Company's functional currency.

A summary of the Company's financial assets and liabilities and digital assets denominated in foreign currencies, expressed in Canadian dollars, is as follows:

	June 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Assets
Cash	7,060	6928
Investment	35,526	34,265
Convertible notes receivable	88,783	82,236
	131,369	123,429
Liabilities
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	633,431	621,094
	(502,062)	(497,665)

The Company has not entered any foreign currency contracts to mitigate this risk. A 5% shift in the exchange rates relative to Canadian dollars would result in a foreign exchange loss of approximately $28,800 (December 31, 2025 - $24,900).

Custody risk

The Company holds its digital assets with several third-party custodians. The Company's custody strategy is designed to maximize liquidity and efficient sourcing of its digital assets by making those assets readily available to deploy. The Company constantly monitors its cash and the digital assets balance it maintains with its custodians.

Prior to onboarding a new custodian, the Company performs extensive due diligence procedures, which include, but are not limited to, internal control procedures to ensure security, availability, integrity and confidentiality of custodian's information and systems. The Company's custodian is SOC 2 Type II and ISAE 3402 certified and undergo a SOC 2 Type II and ISAE 3402 review on an ongoing basis. The Company reviews its custodian's SOC 2 and ISAE 3402 report to ensure they maintain a secure technology infrastructure and that their systems are designed and operating effectively. Additionally, the Company reviews its own complementary user entity controls in conjunction with the custodian's controls to ensure that applicable trust services criteria can be met. The Company has no reason to believe it will incur any expense associated with security breach, computer malware and computer hacking attacks because (i) it has no known or historical experience of claims to use as a basis of measurement, (ii) it accounts for and continually certifies the amount of digital assets within its controls, and (iii) it has established security around custodial private keys to minimize the risk of theft or loss.

Loss of access risk

The loss of access to the private keys associated with the Company's digital assets holdings may be irreversible and could adversely affect an investment. Digital assets controllable only by an individual that possesses both the unique public key and private key or key relating to the "digital wallet" in which the cryptocurrency is held. To the extent a private key is lost, destroyed or otherwise compromised and no backup is accessible, the Company may be unable to access the digital assets. As at June 30, 2026, the Company's digital assets have been impaired due to loss of access.

COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

On June 10, 2024, a lawsuit was filed in BC Supreme Court against the Company by a former contractor alleging breach of contract with the claim amount not quantified. The Company is contesting the matter while the outcome cannot be presently determined. Accordingly, management has accrued a provision of $45,000, included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT ON DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES AND INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate disclosure controls and procedures ("DC&P") and internal controls over financial reporting ("ICFR"), as those terms are defined in National Instrument 52-109 Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings, for the Company. The DC&P provide reasonable assurance that material information relating to the Company is made known to the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The ICFR have been designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with international financial reporting standards ("IFRS").

No changes were made in the Company's design of internal controls over financial reporting during the six months ended June 30, 2026, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting. The Company is still in early days of establishing a system of internal controls.

Due to inherent limitations in all controls systems, a control system can provide only reasonable, not absolute assurance, that the objective of the control system is met and may not prevent or detect misstatements or instances of fraud. Management's estimates may be incorrect, or assumptions about future events may be incorrect, resulting in varying results. Additionally, controls may be circumvented by the unauthorized acts of individuals, by collusion of two or more people or by Management override.
