Telescope Announces Changes to its Board of Directors

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - July 14, 2026) - Telescope Innovations Corp. (CSE: TELI) (OTCQB: TELIF) (FSE: J4U) ("Telescope" or the "Company"), a leading developer of intelligent automation and advanced chemical manufacturing technologies, announces that Ali Pejman has resigned from the Company's Board of Directors ("Board"), effective as of the date of this press release.

Henry Dubina, CEO, stated, "On behalf of the Board and management, I would like to thank Ali for his commitment and the thoughtful guidance he has provided during an important period in the Company's growth. We are pleased that he will continue to support Telescope as a consultant, and we wish him every success."

Mr. Pejman will remain engaged as a consultant to the Company, pursuant to a consulting agreement to be entered into shortly after Mr. Pejman's resignation. The Board continues to actively search for a qualified candidate to fill the resulting vacancy and will announce the appointment of a successor in due course, in accordance with applicable securities laws and the policies of the Canadian Securities Exchange (the "CSE").

About Telescope Innovations

Telescope is a chemical technology company developing intelligent automation technologies and scalable manufacturing processes for the pharmaceutical and chemical industry. The Company builds and deploys reaction sampling systems for real-time analysis, flexible robotic platforms, and artificial intelligence software that improves experimental throughput, efficiency, and data quality. The Company's "Self-Driving Labs" are fully autonomous, physical AI platforms that plan, execute, and analyze experiments far more efficiently than traditional manual approaches. Bio-pharmaceutical, high value specialty chemical, and advanced materials companies utilize Telescope's products and services to accelerate the development and optimization of chemical processes, thereby cutting down time and costs from lab to market.
