MariMed Submits DEA Registration Applications For State-Licensed Medical Cannabis Businesses

Registration Aligns With The Federal Rescheduling of Cannabis to Schedule III, Which Grants Federal Safe Harbor To Licensed Operators And Removes IRS Section 280E Restrictions

NORWOOD, Mass., June 25, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MariMed Inc. ("MariMed" or the "Company") (CSE: MRMD) (OTCQB: MRMD), a leading multi-state cannabis operator, today announced the Company has submitted applications with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency ("DEA") to register certain state-licensed medical cannabis operations. Registering the Company's medical cannabis licenses with the DEA is a requirement to qualify for protections provided by the federal rescheduling of medical marijuana to Schedule III of the Controlled Substances Act.

"DEA registration of certain of our medical businesses marks an important step forward for MariMed as we move the Company toward becoming a federally legal business," said MariMed CEO Jon Levine.
