

VSBLTY Announces Revocation of Cease Trade Order and Process to Resume Trading

PHILADELPHIA, PA, October 2, 2026 – VSBLTY Groupe Technologies Corp. (CSE: VSBY) (OTC: VSBGF) (Frankfurt: 5VS) (“VSBLTY” or the “Company”), a leading software provider of AI-driven security and analytics technology, today announced that the British Columbia Securities Commission (“BCSC”) has issued an order (Citation: 2026 BCSECCOM 327) revoking the failure-to-file cease trade order (“FFCTO”) previously issued against the Company on May 5, 2026.

The FFCTO was issued in connection with the Company’s delay in filing certain required continuous disclosure documents. The Company has now completed and filed all required continuous disclosure documents with the applicable securities regulatory authorities.

The Company has applied to the Canadian Securities Exchange to resume trading of its common shares and expects trading to resume in the near term.

The Company appreciates the patience and continued support of its shareholders during the period in which trading was halted.

“We are pleased to announce that the cease trade order has been revoked and that we expect trading of our shares to resume shortly,” said Jay Hutton, Co-founder and CEO of VSBLTY. “We thank our shareholders for their continued patience and support. With our disclosure obligations now current, we remain focused on executing our strategic initiatives and advancing the significant commercial opportunities in our pipeline. We look forward to updating shareholders on our progress in the coming weeks.”

The Company will continue to provide updates to shareholders as it advances its commercial initiatives and strategic partnerships.
